August 2017

April Krahn Assistant Superintendent, Indigenous Language and Culture

Frontier School Division is pleased to announce the creation of a new Assistant Superintendent position of Indigenous Language and Culture. This position has been made possible using existing budget resources, and emphasizes the Board's ongoing commitment to Indigenous Language and programming.

On behalf of Frontier School Division, I am pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. April Krahn as Assistant Superintendent, Indigenous Language and Culture. April begins her employment August 14, 2017.

April is currently the Director, Aboriginal Student Support & Community Relations with Red River College. Previous to that she worked for the Centre for Aboriginal Human Resource Development first as a Human Resources Consultant, then as a Marketing/Employer Representative. She has also worked as a Community Development Coordinator for Cree Nation Tribal Health Centre in The Pas.

April has extensive community participation experience. For the last seventeen years April has worked in post-secondary education in a variety of roles but within Indigenous Education exclusively. She has worked in almost every First Nation school and Metis community in Manitoba, Northern Ontario, and Kivalliq region of Nunavut. Currently, she is an active member of the Aboriginal Education, Training and Literacy Advisory Council and Manitoba's Education Blueprint Steering committee.

April holds a Masters of Arts in Education degree, a Certificate in both Human Resources and Management & Administration, has completed the Deans and Chairs Management Training; and is close to completing a Ph.D in Adult Education.

Please join me in welcoming April to the Frontier Family.
