

The Board of Trustees and Superintendent of Education, Ted Fransen are pleased to announce that Lisa Boles has been appointed as the new Assistant Superintendent of Divisional Support Services effective August 1, 2018.

Lisa is known across Pembina Trails for passion and dedication. She is a leader whose work day does not revolve around the clock. It is fitting that one of Ms. Boles' favourite quotes is by Maya Angelou who says "Nothing will work unless you do". Lisa's ability to always make herself accessible and available is admirable. She has a big heart and is a strong advocate for inclusion. She is held in high regard by both students and staff. You will often hear her name chanted as she goes up to speak during school assemblies. Angela, a grade 11 student at FRC shares, "Miss Boles demonstrates the spirit of FRC, of being a responsible and passionate leader and educator".

We are looking forward to Lisa joining our team at Henlow and wish her all the success in her new and challenging role as an Assistant Superintendent.

To read the full announcement please visit our website.