

Superintendent of Education - Learning Services

Applications are being accepted for the position of Superintendent of Education – Learning Services. As a member of the senior executive council, the successful candidate will help provide leadership to the Learning Services division that oversees administration of schools and the associated services. Duties will commence August 1, 2024, or on a mutually agreed upon date.

Greater Saskatoon Catholic Schools is Saskatchewan's largest Catholic school division. It is our privilege to serve more than 22,000 students in 7 high schools and 43 elementary schools. As well, we co-manage Humboldt Collegiate Institute with Horizon School Division. Our schools are located in Saskatoon, Humboldt, Biggar, Warman and Martensville. We proudly partner with First Nations, Métis and Inuit families and communities. Together, we have developed a variety of programs to foster Indigenous student belonging, participation and success. Our dynamic and growing school division currently employs approximately 2,300 full and part-time teaching, support and service staff. Our division continues to adapt for the future through the implementation of innovative programming within a unique, faith-filled learning environment.

Required qualifications for this position include:

- Commitment to the ideals and principles of Catholic education
- Identification with a parish and participation in the life of the Catholic Church
- Demonstrated practice in fostering workplaces and learning environments that are respectful and inclusive of diverse peoples and communities
- Demonstrated servant leadership and minimum five (5) years' successful educational administration experience
- Experience in building positive relationships with Indigenous peoples, organizations and communities
- Experience in elementary school leadership an asset
- Eligibility for membership in the Saskatchewan League of Educational Administrators, Directors, and Superintendents (LEADS) See Section 8: <https://saskleads.ca/board/leads-bylaws/>

This senior leadership position will provide an exciting challenge for candidates who possess strong administrative, human relations, communication, instruction, and assessment skills. Strong leadership and proven experience in leading change that improves student outcomes, particularly for First Nations, Métis and Inuit students, are important capacities. Please direct questions related to this position to François Rivard, Director of Education, at 306-659-7001 or via email at director@gscs.ca.

Candidates seeking this position are to submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, names of at least three (3) professional references, and one pastoral reference by 12:00 pm noon on Wednesday, April 10, 2024 to the attention of:

Katherine Kowal, Superintendent – Human Resource Services
